Mrs. and Miss Bergen consulted with nief of Police Bransfield, Policeman West, who was at the station at the time of the mishap, and with Drs. Scanion and May, who attended the injured man, and with others, and are satisfied that their son and brother was not intoxicated. They said that on their return to Brooklyn there would probably be a change in counse and that the case would be tried in

The injunction brought by J. Frank Champlin, proprietor of the Watch Hill house, restraining Constructor Cavanaugh and McCaffrey from continuing the rebuilding of the Pawcatuck Valle; street railroad below the Pleasant View function, was assigned for hearing before Judge Brown who issued view function, was assigned for hearing before Judge Brown, who issued the bill of injunction in the superior court at Providence Monday morning. Judge John W. Sweeney appeared for complainant, Judge Edward M. Burke for the contractors, and Attorney Bliss of Providence for the trolley company. When the time for hearing was reached the bill of injunction was not in court, there having been evident delay in transmission. Counsel for rein court, there having been evident de-lay in transmission. Counsel for re-spondent had not seen the bill and was therefore unfamiliar with the contents. Judge Sweeney submitted a copy of the bill for the information of counsel. By agreement of all concerned the hearing was continued to next Wed-nesday morning.

The bill of injunction recites that the contractors had no legal license to do any work in the highway and that it was unreasonable to do the con-templated work during the summer season and that beside it was denger-ous and a general public inconvanience.

Think what this means. No specialist's fees; no sanatorium charges; no travelling expenses; no expensive egg-and-milk gorging. Eckman's Alterative has cured many people right in their own home, where their dear ones encourage them and give them that tender home care which money cannot buy.

Sanatorium treatments build up the body, but do not destroy the disease germs, so that after the sanatorium treatment is discontinued (you talsely believing that you are cured) galioping consumption ofttimes develops.

Ee honest with yourself. Have your physician examine you NOW. He'll probably recommend the usual fresh-air, egg-and-milk or sanatorium treatments. Perhaps he'll tell you your case is incurable. Then, after you have thoroughly investigated our affidavits and testimonials—feeling sure in your own mind that if Eckman's Alterative has cured so many others it surely must help you—start taking the Alterative. Your improvement, should be gradual, but certain. But don't think your cure is complete—KNOW it! Have the same physician examine you again. If you have been faithful to Eckman s Alterative has cured at your improvement, if not reporting an absolute. Eckman's Alterative is good for all Throat and Lung troubles and is on sala.
